Being a female journalist myself, I absolutely fell in love with The Bold Ink Awards, an annual event hosted by the WriteGirl organization. Within a community of women writers, WriteGirl promotes creativity and self-expression to empower girls. The Bold Ink Awards celebrate landmark achievements by women writers.

The Bold Ink Awards featured well-established women screenwriters, novelists, journalists, producers and directors. It was an elegant soiree ensnared with femme fatale. Among the guest list was literary genius, Melissa Rosenberg, the mastermind behind the adaptation/screenplay of both the Twilight and Dexter series.

This celebration showcased the many accomplishments and huge strides for women writers within the last decade. It was an incredible evening that left attendees inspired and honored the strides that women are making as writers. In addition, Lisa Cholodenko (Screenwriter/Director, The Kids Are All Right), Zoe Kazan (Playwright/Screenwriter, Ruby Sparks) & Kami Garcia and Margaret Stohl (Authors of the Beautiful Creatures series) were among the esteemed clientele.
